Another article by John Schindler, expert on security issues and former analyst and counterintelligence of the national security Agency. This time columnist for the Observer provides a pretty interesting look at the problem of modern international relations and its projection on the internal American relations left and right. Newspaper Reporter his position is not fully shared, however, as always, believes it necessary to acquaint readers with the American analysts. The city Council Tuesday after a very stormy debate, adopted the resolution which condemns the movement calling for the boycott of Israel to protect the Palestinian people. The decision was not unanimous it was preceded by a very heated discussion with raised voices. The resolution which was proposed in may, Council member Andy Cohen, the city condemns all efforts to delegitimize the state of Israel and the global movement for boycott thereof. The resolution States that the BDS movement, the acronym for the Boycott, the Alienation and Sanctions notoriously ignores the fact that many of ragimow despotic world leaders and supporters of the movement are often rolled into the unacceptable anti-Semitic rhetoric. more In 2014, the state's Governor Andrew Cuomo was seeking funds to Finance the construction of a new the Tappan Zee bridge at a cost of $ 4 billion connects Westchester County and Rockland thus to be able to promise a minimum increase in the cost of travel. The building at that time actually has already begun despite the lack of a clear financing plan and cost allocation. 13 Jun 2014 Cuomo announced that the Environmental Facilities Corp. will give the state a loan of $ 511 million from the Clean Water State Revolving Fund Revolving Fund clean water. The Fund which is mainly funded by the Federal government designed to give low-interest loans for such projects as the repair and upgrade of the local sewage and waste treatment plants. The state also has a similar revolving Fund drinking water which provides loans for repair and modernization of water mains. more Lately I've noticed that burzhuinov Donald trump is waging his campaign on the workers and peasants and the social-Democrat Hillary Clinton as columnar noblewoman. This impression is reinforced a great article in the new York times tells about how Hillary is raising money for his campaign, not the downtrodden Bernie Sanders and the rich and famous. The article is called Where was Hillary Clinton Ask the rich. In this case, she was visiting us in the Hamptons which is the American Ruble and Nikolina Gora. The Hamptons is the collective name for expensive
